

I encourage the FCC and Chairman Powell to postpone a decision on this issue until congress can have sufficient input, representing the concerns of thier constituents. Myself, as a broadcast professional, feel the changes being considered are very bad choices for the American public. PLEASE open this issue to public debate, at the very least, at the congressional level. Thank you.
Ray Garrett